

Program workshop Sustainable land use beyond agriculture and forestry

13.30 Welcome by SOILveR – Yvonne Ohlsson

Part 1

13.40 Importance of sustainable remediation in the new soil strategy

Keynote speaker: Prof. Paul Bardos, r3, CL:AIRE UK

14.00 Q&A

Part 2

14.10 Promotion of biodiversity, beyond a risk reduction in government funded projects (

Bjorn Johansson Naturverdsverket

14.25 Contaminated land and the biodiversity challenge - exemplified by a Swedish project.

Helena Füst, WSP

14.40 Q&A

14.50 Review of the last two decades experiences of Technosols construction for urban greening

Geoffroy Sere, University of Lorraine

15.00 Phytoremediation as a way of improving underground and above ground biodiversity

Julie Estival, TAUW

15.15 Q&A

15.25 Japanese Knotweed – A manageable threat to brownfields re-use

1. Introduction: State of the art of the Knotweed in the Walloon region, Belgium State of the art in UK

2. Japanese Knotweed – A manageable threat to brownfields re-use

Pierre Dengis, SPAQUE

Prof. Paul Bardos, r3, UK

David Layland, Japanese Knotweed Control Limited

15.50 Q&A

16.00 What will be our message to the Soil Expert Group?

Discussion lead by Marie Jailler, SOILveR member

16.30 End of meeting.